Department: Social Sciences

Discipline: History

Course Number: HISTORY 2311

Course Title: Western Civilization to 1600

Credit: 3 Lecture, 0 Lab

Foundational Component Area of Core Curriculum: Western Civilization

Prerequisites: TSI compliance in Reading

Available Formats: Conventional

Campus: Levelland and Reese

Textbook: Varies according to instructor.

Course Specific Instructions: Each instructor will attach his/her course with specific instructions.

Course Description: This course is a survey of the history of Western Civilization from the Agricultural Revolution to the beginnings of European Global Dominance in the Sixteenth Century. Primary emphasis is placed on the development of human political, religious and social institutions that are the components of civilizations.

Course Purpose: To acquaint students with the early efforts of humanity to organize itself into civilized societies and to promote critical thinking in interrelating the past to the present. The cultural literacy of the student will also be enhanced.

Course Requirements: To maximize a student's potential to complete this course, he/she should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments and examinations in a timely manner, and complete all other projects or papers as assigned in the instructor's specific instructions.

Course Evaluation: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Attendance Policy: Whenever absences become excessive and in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences, the student will be withdrawn from the course. Each instructor will have additional information about attendance on his/her course information sheet.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Students who have completed this course will be expected to:

Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of major issues in the history of Western Civilization.

Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of cause and effect of major events of the past and examine the interrelation of external and internal forces that shape Western Civilization.

Understand the nature of history as a fundamental subject in the study of humanity.

Evaluate the diversity of interpretations of the past and the quality of evidence for that interpretation.

Tolerate ambiguity in explanations of the past and realize that historical explanations will often be complex and tentative.

Apply historical knowledge with caution to current events, seeing common threads of development of the past with the present.

Through course assignments, papers, activities, and assessments, students will:

Demonstrate the ability to read and write clearly and concisely,

Value diversity and differences in people,

Explore relationships of ideas and see their similarities and differences,

Gain a basic understanding of the career fields related in the major,

Assimilate and synthesize information,

Integrate ideas across the curricula, and

Interrelate the past to the present.

Classroom Syllabus
Term: Fall 2019

- I. Course: HIST 2311: Western Civilizations to 1600
- a. Description: This course is a survey of the history of what is termed “western civilization” from pre-history to the 1600s. The course may examine such topics as the major cultural, economic, diplomatic, political, religious and social trends as well as how they result in the rise and fall of various civilizations during this period. The overall emphasis will be on understanding and interpreting history more than just the memorization of dates.
- II. Instructor: Thomas H. Payton
Office: Reese Center, Building #3, Room #318C
Phone: 806-894-9611, ext. 2908
Office hours: As posted on office door or by appointment
E-mail: tpayton@southplainscollege.edu
Website: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/faculty/payton-thomas.php>
- III. General Course Requirements:
Textbook: Western Civilizations: Their History and Their Culture, Vol. 1, Brief 4th Edition. Cole, Symes, Coffin and Stacey, ISBN 978-0-393-26533-0.
Additional reading materials may be recommended from time to time during the course but not generally required.
- IV. Attendance Policy: Regular attendance is very important in this course. A STUDENT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR INITIATING THEIR OWN WITHDRAWAL FROM THE COURSE, if that becomes necessary. If a student is administratively withdrawn from the class, the grade appearing on the transcript will be, at the instructor’s discretion, an ‘X’ or an ‘F’. Administrative withdrawal may occur if the student has missed four or more classes or if the instructor feels that the objects of the class will not be met because of excessive absences from this class. Note that each absence reduces your final grade potential. It is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor concerning absences. Each absence will count 1 to 3 points off, as discussed in class, depending upon timeliness with which the instructor is contacted and the reason for the absence. Note: The instructor is generally unable to return calls to long distance phone numbers.
- V. Examination Policy: There will be four (4) major tests given, of which the lowest grade will be dropped. Because one test will be dropped in any case, no makeups are allowed except in rare and extreme cases (at the discretion of the instructor) or as required due to an accommodation (see Accommodations below).

VI. Grading Policy:

Major Tests22% each, 4 tests, lowest dropped.....66%

Class participation and attendance (up to 3 points off for each absence).....34%

Participation points will be assigned in class based upon discussion postings submitted by the start of each chapter. Each student will be required to submit a minimum of 12 postings (at least 1 each for 12 different chapters or sections – see Rules at end for clarification) during the semester based upon the reading. Further requirements and clarifications will be provided in class (see also rules on last page of syllabus). Any posting not meeting these requirements will NOT count towards the 12 needed to successfully complete this assignment. These 12 postings will be worth 24 of the 34 points assigned for class participation/attendance. Participation in the classroom is also expected and will contribute to the final grade.

VII. General Course Outline: The following course outline is subject to change during the semester as may be necessary.

Chpts. 1 - 4

Test 1

Chpts. 5 - 7

Test 2

Chpts. 8 - 11

Test 3

Chpts. 12-14

Test 4 (FINAL)

Tests will generally follow the pattern of 80% multiple choice, True/False, matching; and 20% essay(s), short answer or fill in the blank (spelling and grammar WILL be graded). The final will not be comprehensive.

VIII. SPC Policy regarding “standard English”: All written assignments should be presented using the conventions of Standard Written English. South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

IX. Student Privacy: South Plains College is bound by the Texas Open Records Law and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Information regarding these topics can be found in the South Plains College Catalog. As far as this class is concerned, I will NOT release or discuss your class performance, grades, averages, or attendance with anyone but you. This means that your parents, class counselors, principals, or any other interested party will not gain this information from me – if they need this sort of information they must ask you for it.

X. ACCOMMODATIONS:

DIVERSITY STATEMENT: In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY: South Plains College strives to accommodate the individual needs of all students in order to enhance their opportunities for success in the context of a comprehensive community college setting. It is the policy of South Plains College to offer all educational and employment opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability or age.

DISABILITY STATEMENT: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland Student Health & Wellness Center 806-716-2577, Reese Center (also covers ATC) Building 8: 806-716-4675, Plainview Center Main Office: 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611, or the Health and Wellness main number at 806-716-2529.

PREGNANCY: If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact Chris Straface, Director of Health and Wellness at 806-716-2362 or email cstraface@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.

- XI. Campus Concealed Carry syllabus statement: Campus Concealed Carry - Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in South Plains College buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and South Plains College policy, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to the SPC policy at: (http://www.southplainscollege.edu/human_resources/policy_procedure/hhc.php) Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all South Plains College campuses. Report violations to the College Police Department at 806-716-2396 or 9-1-1.

- XII. Academic Integrity: It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as their own work any work which they have not honestly performed, is regarded as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, up to and including possible suspension. Students should refer to the SPC General Catalog policy regarding consequences for cheating and plagiarism (see “Academic Integrity” and “Student Conduct” sections).

The Rules

1. All postings must be original – if you duplicate a question, comment, etc already posted by someone else in the class, your posting MAY NOT COUNT.
2. All postings must be original – if you plagiarize from the book or another source, your posting WILL NOT COUNT (you can quote another source, just don't use their questions as your question).
3. All postings must be posted prior to the start time of the related class.
4. Be sure to note page numbers related to your question/comment if applicable.
5. Be sure to note sources (external or otherwise), if you are answering a previous posting (you do not need to do formal notation, simple references will be satisfactory).
6. The 12 postings must be from 12 different chapters or sections. If an entire chapter is assigned, it may only be used once; some chapters will be divided in half and covered over two classes – in these cases, a posting may be made relative to each section covered. The Discussion area in Blackboard will be labeled accordingly. You may post more than 12 but not fewer.
7. Each posting must be relevant to the chapter and the course.
8. Each posting should be limited to 100 words or less.
9. Each posting should help to further the understanding of the material (please, no “please define this word” type questions – that’s what a dictionary is for ☺).
10. Failure to meet these requirements may result in the posting being disqualified (that means it won't count).
11. Any additional clarifications made in class supersede these rules.
